In re Assignment of Cases

Administrative Order 2003-6

I. Family Division Cases

(A) Juvenile offenses, abuse and neglect, adoption, and parental consent cases, shall be filed at the Juvenile Division facility and assigned to the Family Division judge designated to handle juvenile matters, except:

(1) If a domestic relations matter involving the same family is pending in the Family Division and is assigned to a judge not designated to handle juvenile matters, the new juvenile matter shall be assigned to that judge.

(B) All other new Family Division cases, including name changes, shall be filed at the Circuit Court facility and shall be assigned by lot among the Family Division judges who are not designated to handle juvenile matters; except:

(1) If a juvenile case is pending involving the same family, the new domestic relations matter shall be assigned to the judge assigned to the pending juvenile case.

(C) "Family" for purposes of this order includes individuals who are related as husband or wife, parent, step-parent, guardian, child or sibling. An action may still be deemed to involve a "family" although an unrelated individual is involved as a complainant or a party.

II. Civil Cases

All new civil cases shall be assigned by lot among the Circuit judges who are not in the Family Division.

II. Criminal Cases

(A) All new criminal cases shall be assigned by lot among the Circuit judges who are not in the Family Division; except:

(1) The judge designated to handle juvenile matters shall be assigned criminal cases by lot, but no civil cases;

(2) The Chief Judge shall be assigned only extradition cases.

(B) If a juvenile or domestic relations matter is pending involving that same family or a new civil or criminal action arises from the relationship of parties involved in a juvenile or domestic relations matter, so far as is practical, the civil or criminal case shall be assigned to the Family Division judge assigned to the juvenile or domestic relations matter.

(C) The Presiding Judge of the Family Division, or the Chief Judge, shall determine whether to assign a civil or criminal case to a Family Division judge under this section to further the concept of one judge/one family.
